NOTES:

CAUTION: i) In certain provinces, a beneficiary designation or any revocation thereof may be made only by a will and accordingly a beneficiary designation made herein may not be valid. Your beneficiary designation may not automatically change as a result of your future marriage or marriage breakdown. ii) Electronic beneficiary designations may be accepted but may not be legally valid/ enforceable/honoured, and if providing a beneficiary designation electronically you are strongly encouraged to also provide such beneficiary designation in ink. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that the beneficiary designation is effective and changed when appropriate.

QUEBEC: Any beneficiary or successor annuitant/holder designations made using this form by a person domiciled in Quebec, either at the time of execution or at the time of their death, may not be honoured and the assets of the Registered Plan may be payable to the estate of the deceased.

SUCCESSOR vs. BENEFICIARY(IES): If (i) you have designated both a successor annuitant/holder and one or more beneficiary(ies) above, (i i) your designated successor annuitant/holder remains your spouse or common-law partner, and (iii) both are alive at your death, then the designation of a successor annuitant/holder takes precedence.

MULTIPLE BENEFICIARIES: You must ensure that the percentage numbers you may fill in above total to 100 percent. If they do not, all listed beneficiaries will be deemed to have been designated with an equal percentage. If a beneficiary you have designated dies before you, that beneficiary's percentage entitlement will be paid to your estate.

GOVERNING LAW: If you are domiciled in Canada when you die, this form will be governed by the laws of your province/territory of domicile at that time. If you are not, the laws of your Canadian province/territory of domicile at the time of execution of this form will apply. Otherwise, the laws of Ontario will apply.
